XING Recruiter Membership

Customized for HR consultants, managers and headhunters

Signing up to a Recruiter Membership will help you to boost and optimize your recruiting processes as Recruiter Membership gives you access to special search filters, detailed candidate information in the search results, and the option to assign a candidate status so you can keep an eye on talented people and get to them before someone else does!

Your advantages at a glance

Find candidates faster

Boost the relevance of your search results with the special Recruiter search filters that can narrow the list down to professional experience, people interested in career opportunities, or people within a certain area, for example.

Quick access to previous correspondence

All it takes is a single click to call up your previous correspondence with someone without having to go to your inbox.

Instant candidate information

You can compare people's positions, companies, and career levels right from the results list.

Including all XING Premium features

You also gain access to all of the Premium benefits so you can see who visited your profile and can send messages to people you're not connected to on XING, etc.

Efficient candidate management

Get a quick overview of people you have assigned a candidate status to, such as "interesting", "agreed initial interview", "interviewed with the customer", etc.

On top of all the Premium benefits

You can also create up to 50 search alerts and send up to 75 messages a day.

TriFinance
Focus on Financial Functions

"Thanks to the XING Recruiter Membership, I can find the right candidates in half the time it would take with a Premium Membership. This in turn frees up more time for me to hunt for suitable candidates to fill vacant positions for other clients. I wouldn't want to be without it!"

Melanie N. Ortkemper, Business Consultant, TriFinance GmbH
